75th Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav 29-7-2022 N.S.S Unit -3rd International Tiger Day

On 29/07/2022, International Tiger Day was organized by National Service Scheme (3rd Unit) under the chairmanship of Principal Professor Anita Rathi in Ismail National Mahila PG College, Meerut under the Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, in which volunteers and other girl students were honored. A documentary film on tiger conservation was screened. After the documentary film, National Service Scheme (3rd Unit) Program Officer Mrs. Meenu Sharma explained to the students that the tiger is one of the top animals in the food chain on which the entire ecosystem depends. Conservation of tigers is very important to maintain the balance of the ecosystem. Tiger is an important animal through which conservation of many species of other animals can be ensured. In the last 100 years, there has been a sharp decline in the tiger population globally and in many areas the tiger population has been completely eliminated. An increase in the number of trees in national parks and tiger reserves through conservation programs has helped to reduce emissions to the environment to some extent. According to new estimates, the tiger population has increased by about 40% in the last seven years. The cooperation of local people along with legal provisions and technical expertise is very important in tiger conservation efforts. About 60 girl students were benefitted by this program. The program was coordinated and conducted by Mrs. Meenu Sharma. Shri Amit, Shri Gaurav also cooperated in convening the program.

75th Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav 9-8-2022 Economics Department Kakori Day

"Essay competition" was organized by the Department of Economics on the occasion of "Kakori Day" on Tuesday, 9-8-2022 under the Aazadi ka Amrit Festival at Ismail National Women's PG College, Meerut. The Kakori incident was highlighted in detail by Dr. Mamta Singh, Head of the Department. She said that the Kakori incident is a very important chapter of the Indian independence movement. This incident is related to a train robbery, which started from Kakori on August 9, 1925. The agitators had made a plan to rob this train. The aim of the revolutionaries was to loot the government treasury from the train and buy weapons with that money so that the war against the British could be strengthened. This incident is known as 'Kakori incident'. The program was appreciated by the Principal Prof. Anita Rathi and said that the Kakori incident that happened on August 9, 1925 is always known to the revolutionaries like Ramprasad Bismil, Ashfaq Ulla etc. Dr Kavita Garg reported that on 19 December 1927, revolutionary freedom fighters Ram Prasad 'Bismil', Ashfaqullah Khan and Thakur Roshan Singh were hanged by the British government for their involvement in the Kokakori train robbery case. By looting the government treasury in Kakori, the revolutionaries directly challenged the British government. After the hanging of the revolutionaries involved in the Kakori incident, an atmosphere was created in the country which shook the roots of the British government. In fact it is the starting point of the Indian independence movement from where the story of independence was written.

Essays were written by the 16 students of M.A. on "contribution of the fighters of Kakori Ram Prasad Bismil, Ashfaq Ulla Khan, Roshan Singh and Rajendra Nath Lahiri".
